

GREENSBURG HEMPFIELD AREA LIBRARY

237 S. Pennsylvania Avenue Greensburg, PA15601

724-837-5620 www.ghal.org

YOUNGWOOD AREA LIBRARY

17 S. Sixth Street Youngwood, PA 15697

724-925-9350 www.youngwoodapl.org

The following article appeared in the Greensburg Library News Bulletin dated Saturday, December 21, 1935

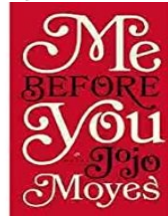

BEST FICTION BOOKS SELECTED ALSO POPULAR NON-FICTION

With only a limited sum of money for immediate use at their disposal, the Library Association decided to purchase 20 of the most representative modern books; fifteen fiction and five non-fiction. In selecting these books, the Fiction Committee made every effort to have as wide a variety as possible, in the hope of satisfying the taste of every type of reader. Listed below are the books which the committee felt best fitted these requirements:

BEST AMERICAN SHORT STORIES OF 1935.

Ellen Glasgow	VEIN OF IRON
S. S. Van Dine	GARDEN MURDER CASE
Rafael Sabatini	CHIVALRY
Anne Linbergh	NORTH TO THE ORIENT
Clarence Day	LIFE WITH FATHER
Will Durant	STORY OF CIVILIZATION
Franz Werfel	FORTY DAY OF MUSA DAGH
Rachel Field	TIME OUT OF MIND
Hugh Walpole	THE INQUISITOR
H. L. Davis	HONEY IN THE HORN
Stefan Zweig	MARY QUEEN OF SCOTLAND AND THE ISLES
James Hilton	LOST HORIZON
A. J. Cronin	THE STARS LOOK DOWN
Stanley Walker	MRS. ASTOR'S HORSE
Kathleen Norris	SHINING WINDOWS
Rockwell Kent	SALAMINA
Mari Sandoz	OLD JULES
Willa Cather	LUCY GAYHEART

April Book Discussion

Me Before You: A Novel

By Jojo Moyes

Thursday, April 20, 6:30—8:30 p.m.

USED BOOK SALE

 May 11, 10:00 a.m.— 7:00 p.m.

 May 13, 10:00 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.

Special Preview Sale— $2.00 Entry

PICTURE THIS AT THE LIBRARY

An Abstract Beginning

By J. W. Bixler

March 31 to June 23, 2017

Our Children's Staff is already planning for our Summer Reading Program which will kick-off on June 8th.

The Library will offer eight weeks of Summer events, Activities and Fun. The theme for this year will be

Build a Better World.

Brochures and information on registering will be available in the near future.

How To Get A Library Card

Anyone in Westmoreland County is entitled to a free Library card.

- ◆ Adults (16 years or older) 2 forms of ID including one with a current address and one with a photo.
- ◆ Children (5-15 years) must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. The adult must have 2 forms of ID including one with a current address and one with a photo. The adult must sign the registration card in addition to the child and is responsible for any overdue, lost or damaged materials.

NEW RELEASES FOR APRIL

